Closing date for all entries – 29 May 2025

A. TERMS

- (1) The 153rd Open will be decided by stroke play over four rounds of 18 holes in accordance with the Rules of Golf as approved by R&A Rules Limited and in accordance with the Local Rules approved by R&A Championships Limited (The R&A).
- (2) In the event of a tie after four rounds, the winner will be decided by a play-off by stroke play over an amount of holes to be determined by the Open Championships Committee.
The player with the lowest aggregate over the extra holes will be declared the winner. If the players are still tied having played these extra holes, a hole-by-hole play-off will be played immediately over the 18th hole only until a winner emerges. If the play-off involves more than 2 players, those other than the winner will be deemed to have tied for 2nd place regardless of their scores in the play-off.
- (3) The starting field will be 156 players. The 70 lowest scores over the first 36 holes and any tying for 70th place will qualify for the 3rd round on Saturday 19 July and the 4th round on Sunday 20 July. If a player who has posted a two round total score that will qualify for the 3rd round, withdraws before or after the 3rd round draw is made, the player's score will still be used to calculate the leading 70 places and ties that will determine the cut mark.
- (4) In the event of play being either delayed or declared null and void for any round of The Open, additional play will be at the discretion of the Open Championships Committee. Additional play will take place on Monday 21 July and exceptionally Tuesday 22 July.
- (5) The R&A arranges publicity before and during The Open in the Press and by live and recorded radio and television broadcasting and filming and on the Internet. Each player agrees to make reasonable efforts during The Open to attend press conferences and to co-operate with the media in support of The Open, including appearances for The R&A's broadcast partners. Each player by entering The Open and thereby agreeing to these Terms assigns to The R&A and its assignees and licensees the right in perpetuity throughout the world to make, use, exhibit and reproduce in any way now known or hereafter devised (and to authorise others to do so) for commercial and other purposes from time to time and at their discretion, motion pictures, still pictures, live taped or filmed television, sound recordings and any other reproductions of any description of the player and/or their caddie made during or in connection with The Open (including, without limitation, during practice and play) without compensation for the player or caddie or the heirs, successors, executors, administrators or assignees of the player or caddie. The player also irrevocably assigns to The R&A the right to use and reproduce, and to permit allow others to use and reproduce, the player's and/or caddie's names, images, voices, likeness, signatures, and biographical materials in any way now known or hereafter devised without compensation for the player or caddie or the heirs, successors, executors, administrators or assignees of the player or caddie including in circumstances where the player's and/or their caddie's name, voice, likeness, signature, and biographical material: (i) is used to promote the official merchandise of The Open, (ii) is incorporated into any content or promotional material produced by The R&A or its sponsors or official suppliers which may include the logo of a third party or of a sponsor or official supplier of The Open or any subsequent Open Championship, or (iii) is used in relation to any other activities undertaken by The R&A. Players will be responsible for ensuring that they hold all the necessary rights to grant the above assignments, including appropriate agreements with their caddies. The player and their caddie shall release and discharge The R&A, its group companies, licensees, successors and assignees from any claims arising from use of their name, voice, likeness, signature, and biographical material, including claims for misrepresentation of their character, or their person by any means. By agreeing to these Terms, the player and their caddie hereby waive all privacy, publicity, and proprietary rights. Notwithstanding the foregoing grant of rights, The R&A and its assignees and licensees agree that, other than as permitted above, they will not authorise any company contractually associated with The R&A to use the player's or their caddie's name, image, voice, likeness, signature, and biographical material in a way which constitutes the endorsement by the player of a product or service, without requiring such associated company to first obtain the player's authorisation. Also, to comply with certain contractual limitations relating to advertising on television, players assent that they or their caddies may not, without the prior approval of The R&A, display any commercial identification on clothing or equipment other than that customarily affixed to and of the normal size and in the normal position on any such clothing or equipment.
- (6) The R&A requires players and their team to conduct themselves in a manner that is respectful of The Open and the sport of golf. Players and their team shall at all times act in the best interests of the sport and The Open, and shall not conduct themselves in an unlawful or improper manner or so as to bring The Open, The R&A, the sport of golf or its governing bodies into disrepute and shall not use any one of or a combination of, violent conduct, threatening, abusive, indecent or insulting words or behaviour. Players and their team shall comply with any Code of Conduct set by the Open Championships Committee from time to time. For the purposes of this condition, a player's team includes their caddies as well as any agents, coaches or other support team including family members present at The Open or in the environs of The Open venue or otherwise acting in relation to The Open.
- (7) Players will at all times be liable for the actions of their caddies and will ensure that the caddies comply with the Terms as they apply to the players. Players will ensure that their caddies wear clothing of a type appropriate to The Open and, in particular, caddies will be required to wear The Open over-garment or bib of a type and design as will be supplied by the Open Championships Committee. Caddies will be required to wear such an over-garment or bib during official practice rounds and during The Open. Caddies shall wear smooth, rubber-sole (preferably tennis or basketball) shoes. Details of the Policy, and the Prohibited Substances and Prohibited Methods, are available from The R&A. Players who are taking medication and in doubt as to their clinical status should seek advice from The R&A not later than 21 days before the start of The Open (and Qualifiers).
- (9) Any players gaining entry into The Open (and Qualifiers) that hold Russian and/or Belarussian nationalities and/or passports are subject to the Neutral Athlete Criteria set by the Open Championships Committee from time to time.
- (10) All players gaining entry into The Open (and Qualifiers) are subject to the provisions of The Open's Anti-Corruption and Betting Policy.
- (11) All competitors and/or caddies are subject to the provisions of The R&A's Logos and Marks Policy in force at the date of The Open.

Those players randomly selected will be notified directly as part of the registration process at The Open. In addition, an information service for players will be available throughout The Open to answer any outstanding questions on the conformity of their equipment.

- (12) For FQ, the field will be divided between the designated courses.
- (13) Ties for last qualifying places in each competition will be decided by a hole by hole play-off as soon as practicable after the last players finish their round. The Open Championships Committee will announce a start time of the play-off and all eligible players must report to the teeing area of the first playoff hole at this time to confirm their place in the play-off. Any player who is not present in this location at the time specified by the Open Championships Committee will not be included in the play-off.

REGIONAL QUALIFYING (RQ)

- (15) To determine qualifiers to FQ, separate RQ competitions of 18 holes each will be played by stroke play on Monday 23 June 2025 at Bearwood Lakes, Caldy, Craigielaw, Enville (Highgate Course), Ferndown (Old Course), Frilford Heath (Red Course), Fulford, Hesketh, Gog Magog (Old Course), Kilmarnock (Barassie) – Barassie Links, Lindrick, Moor Park (High Course), North Hants, Rochester & Cobham Park and The Island. If the entry exceeds the number that can be accommodated at these courses, additional courses may be added. It may not be possible to allocate all entrants to their preferred courses.

If the field of any of these competitions does not exceed 40, that particular competition may be cancelled and the entrants concerned required to play in another RQ. After allowing for players who fulfil the conditions under section D, the number of qualifying places available into FQ will be determined by the size of each field. Allocation of RQ courses will be at the sole discretion of The R&A.

- (17) Ties for last qualifying places in each competition will be decided by a hole by hole play-off as soon as practicable after the last players finish their round. The Open Championships Committee will announce a start time of the play-off and all eligible players must report to the teeing area of the first play-off hole at this time to confirm their place in the play-off. Any player who is not present in this location at the time specified by the Open Championships Committee will not be included in the play-off.

The play-off start time will apply to all play-off competitors for the purposes of Rule 5.3 irrespective of which group the player has been drawn to play in.

Note: In the event insufficient players turn up for the play-off, to break specific tied positions, places and reserves will be decided by a card countback. The card countback will use the back 9 holes of the course or 6 or 3 or 2 or 1 hole and if a tie still arises, the last 6 or 3 or 2 or 1 hole of the front 9 holes of the course.

- (18) Irrespective of play-off places, see B.(16), reserve places in case of subsequent withdrawals from FQ will be decided by a card countback, if necessary, from each RQ competition. The card countback will use the back 9 holes or 6 or 3 or 2 or 1 hole and, if a tie still arises, the last 6 or 3 or 2 or 1 hole of the front 9 holes and, if a tie still arises, by the drawing of lots.
- (19) In the event of play being incomplete or declared null and void on Monday 23 June, the competition will continue or take place on Tuesday 24 June at the same venue.
